GC Tax Assessor

Robyn Glocker-Hammond Gloucester County Tax Assessor addressed the Committee regarding the need for a re-assessment in South Harrison Township. As property values continue to drop the number of appeals goes up. There were 85 appeals this year, 77 of which were successful with judgments totaling $6,320,200.00. The re-value will bring everything by in line. The re-assessment will be door to door, the County would like to start the process August 1, 2013, with a letter of notice going to all property owners explaining the procedure. The County is looking at a seven (7) week time frame (weather permitting). Homeowners will receive a letter in November with the new estimated tax rate and the assessment cards February 1, 2014.
