Dear Residents,
4/30/20

Governor Murphy signed Executive Order 133 on April 29th, which provides for the limited reopening of all New Jersey State and County Parks, as well as all golf courses, at sunrise on Saturday, May 2nd.

In accordance with Executive Order 133, Stewart Park will reopen for limited passive recreation purposes only, at sunrise on Saturday May 2nd. "Social distancing will continue to be mandated" within Stewart Park, which again shall be open for passive recreation only, such as walking, running, biking, etc. The use of the sports fields for organized team play or contact sports remains restricted and prohibited.

Additionally, "all playgrounds, basketball courts, exercise stations and equipment, restrooms, and pavilions shall remain closed until further notice".

Additional updates will be provided in a timely manner. Thank you!

Regards,

Joseph Marino Mayor
