Personal Information and Choice

You may choose whether to provide personal information on-line.

“Personal Information” is information about a natural person that is readily identifiable to that specific individual. Personal information includes such things as an individual’s name, address, e-mail address and phone number.

A Domain Name or Internet Protocol (IP) address is not considered personal information. An IP address is a number that is automatically assigned to your computer whenever you are surfing the web.

The type of browser and operating system used to access our site; the date and time you access our site; and the pages you visit are not considered personal information as well.

We collect no personal information about you unless you voluntarily provide it to us by sending us email, participating in a survey or completing an on-line form. You may choose not to contact us by email, participate in a survey, or provide any personal information using an on-line form. Your choice not to participate in these activities will not impair your ability to browse the Township of South Harrison website and read or download any information provided on the site.

Information Collected and Stored Automatically

We automatically collect and store only the following information about a visit to the site; such as the IP address, time visited, and pages on the site which were visited.

The Township of South Harrison does not sell any of the information collected for any purpose. The information is used solely to make the website more useful to visitors; learning about the number of visitors to this website and the types of technology visitors use helps improve this website and the services it offers.

The Township of South Harrison does not collect information for commercial marketing, nor does the Township create individual profiles with information you provide nor does the Township provide the information to private organizations.

If You Send Us Personal Information

If you choose to provide the Township with personal information, such as an email to an elected official or municipal employee, or by filling out a form with your personal information and submitting it to the Township through the Township website, the Township will use that information to respond to your message and to help the Township provide the information you have requested. Once again, the Township does not provide the information to any private organization, nor does the Township collect information for commercial purposes. Visitors/users to the Township of South Harrison website should be aware that, subject to certain statutory exceptions, most documents and records maintained by the Township of South Harrison, including, but not limited to, electronic data, may be considered public records under New Jersey Law. Therefore, information submitted through the website may be subject to disclosure pursuant to an Open Public Records Application Request.

Privacy Warning

Email is not a secure medium. Personal information sent via the Internet can be intercepted and the Township of South Harrison cannot guarantee the privacy of personal information you transmit over the Internet or that may be collected by others in transit, or any security measures that we may use in protecting such information that we receive. Moreover, the Township of South Harrison cannot guarantee the privacy of personal information if you visit any third-party websites, including those which may be hyperlinked from the Township of South Harrison website. You may, therefore, wish to reconsider the advisability of sending messages that contain sensitive, personal information to this Internet address. Please be advised that while it is the Township of South Harrison's policy to not disclose any information collected or discovered voluntarily, the Township of South Harrison may be required to provide certain information pursuant to a request under the New Jersey Open Public Records Act; the State's right to know Laws; any common law right to know Laws; other State and/or Federal Laws or pursuant to a Court Order.

Cookies

The Township of South Harrison does not use Cookies. Cookies are simple text files stored on your computer by some Internet websites to help identify users and the sequence of their movement through a website.
